We have listed here a variety of dress styles to compliment any figure to help you with your shopping experience at SampleGowns.

A-Line - The classic A-line style will flatter and slender almost any figure and is characterized by the fitted bodice with no waist but gently flares at or near the natural waistline.

Ball Gown - This classic and elegant style has a fitted bodice with the traditional full skirt.

Mermaid - Not for every shape, but beautiful on the not-so-hippy girls. Fitted tightly through the bodice, hips, and legs and flares at the bottom.

Sheath - These gowns are very fitted and almost tube-like in appearance.

Basque Waist - Waistline dips below natural waist forming a 'V' in the center
Dropped - Waistline dips below natural waistline and sits more on hips
Empire - High waistline just under bust
Princess Cut - Many wedding gowns, especially A-lines, have no defined waist
Natural - Waistline sits between the empire and dropped waistlines.

Empire - A flattering bodice that ends just below the bust, this style looks great on pregnant brides and petite women alike.
