Article Body:

Patriarchy has been ruling the world since ancient times and today also it remains still innate in us to follow it without questioning. In a broader spectrum, it is the male world when it comes to societal norms and decision-taking powers. But when it comes to fashion and clothing, it is completely dominated by women. They have always been expected to look good, and adorn themselves with beautiful accessories and clothing. Probably this is the reason, why fashion industry even today focuses mainly on women clothing than men.

Every woman dreams to wear something that will give her elegant and different look as compared to others. She wishes to be adored with compliments from people around her. But this is not as simple as it would appear to be as it is a known fact that women are choosy and picky about the clothes. They are not only conscious about the color, brand, style and design of the clothes while purchasing the clothes but they are very particular about budget too. Hence, with the change in trends, the clothing sector is becoming challenging with every passing day. To match the latest designs and trends as well as pocket friendly, there has been a whole range of wholesale dresses available now.
