Many of the quotes that are attributed to Ireland are those that are full of dealing with strife and problems. For many individuals in Ireland's history, their lives were anything but easy. They struggled to find food, homes and shelter many times. And, when they had that there was disease ravishing them. For those in Ireland, many quotes are very religious in nature as well. The goal of each is to inspire or just to learn to deal with the things that were put at their feet.
